SIR ROGER CASEMENT FACES CHARGE OF HIGH TREASON

Crown Says That He Visited Irish Soldiers In German Prisons and Offered Fifty Dollars Each for Desertion.

LONDON, May 15.—Shuffling in shoes requisitioned from the British Army, clad in a seedy dark suit with frayed sleeves, his face covered with a slovenly scrub, and almost greenish beard, Sir Roger Casement, former favorite of the British Consular service, went to hearing on a charge of high treason in the Bow Street Court.

Attorney General Sir F. E. Smith read the formal charge in review of Casement's career. A German auxiliary sunk off the Irish coast, when Casement landed, carried twenty thousand rifles, fifty million rounds of ammunition, many bombs and ten machine guns for rebels. Smith stated.

Daniel Bailey, an Irish soldier and co-defendant with Casement was arrested in Wentworth, Ireland, April 21.

Smith said that the Crown expected to prove that Casement expected to land expeditions at many places on the Irish and English coast and that he visited imprisoned Irish soldiers in Germany and offered them $50 each for desertion. About thirty deserted and the others were punished for refusing. Bailey and Casement rode to Tradeston, Ireland, and were landed in the submarine U-106. John Robinson, John Croton, prisoners tried by exchange, testified regarding Casement's plot. Attorney General Smith presented Bailey's statement, confessing the details of the plot.
